

UNI STEM Camp Specific Standards of Behavior

STEM camp specific Behavior Guidelines

All STEM campers are expected to follow these general rules in addition to the University of Northern Iowa Standards of Behavior for Youth Participants:

- Campers will treat themselves, fellow campers, staff, and volunteers with respect at all times.
- Campers will ask permission of a staff person before leaving the group.
- Campers will follow any safety precautions explained at the start of each activity and ask questions if they do not understand a safety precaution.

See <https://stem.uni.edu/k12-students-families/about-uni-stem-camps> for the newest version of both staff/volunteer and camper behavior guidelines.

Standards of Behavior for Youth Participants

University of Northern Iowa (Updated February 2024)

Youth participants taking part in a UNI Youth Program are required to conduct themselves in accordance with the following standards of behavior. These standards have been established to help maintain a supportive, engaging, safe, and meaningful experience for all.

Participant expectations:

- Be courteous and considerate, and always interact with others respectfully
- Practice good citizenship and always treat others with kindness
- Use appropriate language at all times
- Practice leadership and encourage fellow participants to conduct themselves appropriately and with integrity
- Be responsible for your own behavior; uphold high standards for self and accept consequences for inappropriate behavior

Behaviors that are not permitted include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Any actions that bully, tease, dominate, or display sexualized behavior towards another
- Disrespecting others or exhibiting unethical or immoral conduct
- Use of inappropriate language, including profanity, slurs, insults or anything other language that could be hurtful or harmful to another person
- Possession or consumption of alcohol and illegal drugs, including the use of tobacco
- Possession or use of harmful objects with the intent to harm or intimidate others (e.g., weapons, fireworks, etc.)
- Using cameras, videos, or any other type of recording devices in private areas, such as bathrooms, changing/locker rooms, or shower facilities
- Being in spaces that are not permitted or off-limits, such as unsupervised or unauthorized spaces, etc.
- Destruction or theft of property
- Other conduct determined to be inappropriate for youth development

Violations of the standards of behavior will be handled as follow:

- If a chaperone is present for the minor involved in the violation, this person will be made aware of the violation.
- If necessary, arrangements will be made to remove the minor from the activity or program.
- The parent/guardian will be notified of the incident and actions that have been and/or will be taken.
- The minor can/may be barred from participating in future UNI Youth Programs.
- When warranted (e.g., violation of law) the situation may be turned over to the appropriate external agency (e.g. law enforcement authority).
